

Prof. Niall Ferguson MA, D.Phil.

Renowned Expert on Geopolitics and the Global Economy

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Niall Ferguson is one of our most influential commentators on Geopolitics and the Global Economy. The wide range of his expertise underscores his ongoing timeliness as a keynote speaker. Professor of History at Harvard University, a Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution, Stanford University, and a Senior Research Fellow at Jesus College, Oxford, he has published twelve books, including "The Ascent of Money: A Financial History of the World" (also an International Emmy Award-winning PBS/Channel 4 documentary series) and, "The Great Degeneration: How Institutions Decay and Economies Die".

"The most talented British Historian of his generation"

In detail

He is a regular contributor to television and radio on both sides of the Atlantic. A prolific commentator on contemporary politics and economics, Niall is a contributing editor for Bloomberg TV. In 2003 he wrote and presented a six-part history of the British Empire for Channel 4. The accompanying book, "Empire: The Rise and Demise of the British World Order and the Lessons for Global Power", was a bestseller in both Britain and the U.S. The sequel, "Colossus: The Rise and Fall of the American Empire", was published in 2004 and prompted Time magazine to name him one of the 100 most influential people in the world. Two years later he published "The War of the World: Twentieth-Century Conflict and the Descent of the West".

What he offers you

Niall believes that money is the cornerstone of human progress but can also be the catalyst for catastrophe for individuals, companies and nations. Through his in-depth analysis and research into historical events as well as current economical and political trends, he offers invaluable advice for leading businesses world wide.
