"Start narrow then expand" - Al Ries

In detail

Since co-authoring a notorious series of articles on positioning, with Jack Trout, he has published various industry classics.

Following service in the US Army his marketing career began at General Electric. He progressed to Needham, Louis & Brorby and Martseller before starting his own advertising agency, Ries Cappiello Colwell.

What he offers you

In a brand conscious world, he is supremely placed to advise you on strategies that transform products and services to market leaders. Ripe for today's market he reveals why a narrow focus is essential to owning a category in the consumers' mind and the potential power of your Internet brand.

How he presents

Energy and dynamism combine effortlessly with his compelling messages. You will be both challenged and enthused.

Languages

He presents in English.
