

Alain Elkann

Journalist and novelist.

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Alain Elkann is an author, intellectual and journalist who was born in New York, in 1950. Internationally well-known, his books have been translated into languages including French, Spanish, Portuguese, Russian, Hebrew, Turkish and Japanese. Interview work in English includes dialogue with Prince Hassan Bin Talal of Jordan, To Be A Muslim, and The Voice of Pistoletto with the artist Michelangelo Pistoletto, published autumn 2014 by Rizzoli Ex Libris.

In detail

Alain has maintained a weekly interview column for the Italian national daily newspaper La Stampa since 1989. His archive encompasses an impressive range of celebrated subjects, including award-winning writers and editors; film stars and directors; fashion designers and businessmen; artists, collectors and museum curators; politicians and diplomats; economists and historians; thinkers and human rights activists. Two books of classic interviews have been published by Bompiani. Alain teaches Jewish 20th century writers "From Franz Kafka to Primo Levi, from Philip Roth to Aharon Appelfeld" at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. He has lectured on art, Italian literature and Jewish studies at the Universities of Oxford, Columbia, Jerusalem and Milan's IULM. He is President of The Foundation for Italian Art & Culture (FIAC) in New York and in 2009 Alain was awarded the prestigious Legion d'Honneur by the French Republic.

What he offers you

Alain Elkann is available as a very experienced interviewer and moderator. As a keynote speaker, being a promoter of the Italian Culture, he deals on topics such as the Italian Culture and History and the relation between the Jewish Faith and other religions.

How he presents

Alain Elkann is a charismatic figure, he way to present is plain and inspiring.

Languages

Alain Elkann presents in English, Italian and French .

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he/she could bring to your event. How to book him? Simply phone or e-mail us.