

Benjamin Zander

Conductor, Boston Philharmonic Orchestra

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Benjamin Zander has been the conductor of The Boston Philharmonic Orchestra for the past thirty years. He has been on the faculty of the New England Conservatory since 1965 and has taken the NEC Youth Philharmonic on thirteen international tours. He is also the Artistic Director of the Walnut Hill School, a high school for the performing arts. He was the lead keynote speaker at the 2009 World Economic Forum in Davos, and has been profiled on CNN, 60 Minutes and the BBC, and in the New York Times, The Times of London and the Wall Street Journal.

A radiant communicator who connects with the corporate min

In detail

Mr Zander was the 2002 recipient of the United Nations "Caring Citizen of the Humanities Award." He is highly respected in corporate and political circles, and addressed numerous prestigious gatherings of world leaders. He wrote "Bridges to Possibility" with noted psychotherapist Rosamund Stone Zander, a book dedicated to leadership and creativity. His most recent work "The Art of Possibility" provides a life-altering approach to fulfilling dreams large and small.

What he offers you

Mr. Zander is one of the most sought after speakers in the world, giving highly effective presentations to organizations on the subject of Leadership and Creativity. He employs the model of music as an analogy for corporate life. Effortlessly translating his accomplishments, he relates to the business arena in a spellbinding performance. In doing so, he awakens your perspective on leadership, creativity, coaching and teamwork.

How he presents

With flair and animation, he involves you in an inimitable way. He is guaranteed to be a memorable ingredient of your event that will be much talked about.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Video