

Don Johnson

World Famous Actor, Producer, Director and Writer

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Don Johnson has one of the most recognizable names and faces in the world. With two highly successful TV Series, Miami Vice and Nash Bridges, currently airing 233 episodes in 143 countries around the world, dozens of hit movies including Tin Cup, Guilty as Sin, The Hot Spot and two platinum records, the multi-talented performer has attained a level of success known by few in the entertainment business. In June 2008 he is in Rome to shoot a role in a new romantic comedy, called When in Rome.

"Once you become famous, there is nothing left to become but infamous"

In detail

Perhaps what is less known about Don Johnson is his commitment to charitable, philanthropic and environmental causes over the course of his over 35 years in the public arena. Leveraging his public persona, Don has supported worthy and venerable organizations such as: UNESCO, NRDC (Natural Resources Defense Council), The American Red Cross, Make a Wish Foundation, and The National Literacy Foundation. Under his production, he also produced the prestigious Horatio Alger Awards Special for CBS.

What he offers you

Don Johnson is a modern icon. He presents a look, a style, and an attitude that made him one of the most imitated men to come along since James Dean. He is in a unique position and has decided to openly share his experiences, drawing from his journey and experiences with the media, fame, business success (and failures), and addictions.

How he presents

Using self-deprecating humour and anecdotes from a lifetime of relationships with celebrities and sages, Don openly shares his discoveries to the true keys to success "...to find lasting joy and genuine happiness regardless of who you are...or think you are."

Languages

He presents in English.
