

Prof. Frederic Mishkin

Professor of Banking & Financial Institution and Federal Reserve Board Governor, 2006 - 2008

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Frederic S. Mishkin, author of "The Economics of Money, Banking and Financial Markets", is the Alfred Lerner Professor of Banking and Financial Institutions at the Graduate School of Business, Columbia University. He was a member of the Board of Governors at the Federal Reserve System from 2006-08. He is also a Research Associate at the National Bureau of Economic Research, a Senior Fellow at the FDIC Center for Banking Research and was President of the Eastern Economic Association. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve System, the World Bank, the Inter-American Development Bank and the International Monetary Fund, as well as to numerous central banks throughout the world. He was also a member of the International Advisory Board to the Financial Supervisory Service of South Korea. From 1994 to 1997 he was Executive Vice President and Director of Research at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and an associate economist of the Federal Open Market Committee of the Federal Reserve System.

What he offers you

Frederic S. Mishkin's research focuses on monetary policy and its impact on financial markets and the aggregate economy. He explores in detail how today's volatile markets are influenced and draws upon his considerable expertise at the Federal Reserve Bank to advise companies on how to deal successfully with the current global financial economy.

How he presents

Frederic S. Mishkin's keen insights, deep analysis and humour enrich his insightful presentations, drawing lessons from both what was done badly and what was done well.

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.